New Mexico state law requires NM registered outfitters to have signed contracts with their perspective clients before applying them into the state draw. H&A Outfitters, Inc. requires a $500 non-refundable deposit to apply you for New Mexico draw hunts. If you are unsuccessful in the draw, you will be locked in at that hunt price until we draw your desired hunt or you may apply your deposit towards any other hunt H&A Outfitters, Inc. offers. You can put our app. service on hold once for one year, after that we will need to start re-applying you or your contract will be void. When you are successful in the state draw, your entire $500 deposit will be applied towards your hunt price. You will be billed accordingly to bring your deposit up to 50% of the total hunt cost within 30 days of the draw release date.

I agree to H&A Outfitter's, Inc. F.G.O. license application service.
